

Prophetess Ebony Murrell and her three beautiful children; Devin, Dawson and Semone, have lived in Lincoln County for the past 8 years.

She currently attends Covenant Christian Church of Catawba County, in Hickory NC, under the leadership of her spiritual parents and Senior Pastors, Bishop Don and Helen Bledsoe & Pastors, Ron and Katie Carson.

In 2004, she met Jesus Christ and her life was redeemed and forever transformed. In the same year, upon receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit, she began hearing the ‘voice’ of the Lord, ministering and speaking revelation to her concerning His Word, His Church and His people. She surrendered to her call to serve in Ministry in 2006 and in September 2007, she preached her first sermon and was licensed as Minister at New Providence Full Gospel Church, in Crouse NC, by Pastor, Apostle Eugene Brooks.

In June 2009, she was ordained in the Ministry of a Prophetess, by Apostle John Eckhardt, Apostle Stephen Garner of IAPW Churches and Apostle Norris & Michelle Johnson, Reconciliation Ministries International, in Racine, WI.

She currently attends the Covenant Christian School of the Bible of Catawba County, in Hickory NC.

The mission in her Christian walk is to share the ‘truth’ of God’s Word, not adding or taking away from it. To freely give grace and mercy to others, as God has so graciously given to her. To speak new life and liberty by the power of God’s Word and His Holy Spirit, to those who are bound, captive, dying and lost; and to glorify the Lord in the gifts He has abundantly bestowed upon her life.